

NO LONGER ATTRACTIVE.

Hays Will Leave Road October First.

He Issues Statement to That Effect.

Has No Definite Plans—Will Remain at Menlo Park Till December.

(BY THE NEW ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.)
SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 22.—President Charles M. Hays of the Southern Pacific has issued the following statement:

"The change in policy and organization of the company, consequent upon the change in ownership of the control of the Southern Pacific shortly after my taking service with the company, has made a place, originally attractive to me, so much less so that I, several weeks ago, voluntarily placed my resignation and surrender of my contract with the company at the disposal of the Executive Committee, effective on such date and upon such conditions as might be agreeable. We have agreed upon October 1 as the date upon which my resignation shall become effective. Announcements as to my successor, etc., may doubtless be made shortly.

"I have no definite plans as yet, but expect to remain some weeks enjoying the country with my family at Menlo Park, and will probably go east some time early in December."

HAYS'S SUCCESSION.

(BY THE NEW ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.)
SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 22.—On top of President Hays's resignation comes the information that H. E. Huntington will arrive from New York in this city next Monday. Old railroad officials claim that it is more than probable that H. E. Huntington will be the next President.

In answer to the query whether there was any truth in the report that Mr. Hays would accept the position of president of the Boston and Maine system, Secretary Ingram said that Mr. Hays would not either deny or affirm the rumor.

Secretary Ingram also said that Mr. Hays would not state whether E. H. Fitch would continue in the service of the company. Mr. Fitch will be here in a few days, and it is expected that the news will come from New York in a few days.

TRAIN WRECK ON WABASH NEAR COUNCIL BLUFFS.

ENTIRE TRAIN TURNED BOTTOM SIDE UP IN RAVINE.

Nearly a Hundred Passengers and Nine Killed—Three Perhaps Fatally Injured and Sixteen Seriously—Wreck Due to Spreading of Rails—Miraculous Escape.

(BY THE NEW ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.)
OMAHA, Sept. 22.—Through passenger train No. 3, on the Wabash from St. Louis to Omaha, was wrecked at 10 o'clock today at a curve seven miles southeast of Council Bluffs. The engine, consisting of mail and baggage cars, two day coaches, a chair car and Pullman sleeper, rolled down an eighteen-foot embankment and turned bottom-side up. The engine alone remained upright, stopping on the forward trucks on the edge of the bridge over Indian Creek. The train carried nearly a hundred passengers, and, miraculously as it seems, none were killed. Three were perhaps fatally injured and sixteen seriously hurt. A score of others received minor bruises. The wreck is thought to have been due to spreading of the rails.

The body hurt:

CONDUCTOR ARTHUR F. WILSON, Council Bluffs, Iowa; side and head badly crushed, internal injuries; may die.

MRS. GEORGE R. E. SILVER, Chicago, Illinois; several ribs broken, hip crushed and internal injuries.

Infant daughter of A. H. Wilson, Tebbam, Neb., head badly crushed; will probably die.

KILLED SELF AND GRANDSON.

NEW YORK, Sept. 22.—Mrs. Louise Nosta, 56 years of age, of Astoria, Ore., killed herself and her grandson Willie Colletti, 6 years of age, some time during Wednesday night. Their bodies have just been found. She had stuffed the keyholes and other apertures in the room with papers and turned on the gas. Four years ago her husband committed suicide, and this is believed to have affected her mind. Mrs. Nosta was quite wealthy.

COPPER ISLAND SEALERS.

VICTORIA (B. C.) Sept. 22.—The sealing schooner Carlotta G. Cox arrived from the Japanese coast and Copper Island today with 85 skins as a result of the season's work. She took a dozen branded skins of the Copper Island and the skins of Japan, which were branded on Pribilof Islands.

that I was there. Other people forget about it, Cap."

"You're trying now to justify Capt. Harber's want of recollection," said Rayner, "by stating that the commander-in-chief wrote a letter that there were no picket boats there."

"I do not mention his presence, and I corrected it."

"Do you recollect any statements made by the commander-in-chief when he had a picket boat within the picket line that he had arranged a signal from the picket boat to the flagship?"

"He did not mention any," answered the witness "and I have a letter on file in the department calling attention to the omission in that report."

"I call your attention to the report of the commander-in-chief in which he states 'the line of blockade.'"

"I wish to bring out that the DuPont was inside the line, and that is the report I made to the department. I still stand on the point that he is not bringing out where the torpedo boat was."

Said Mr. Rayner: "You are perfectly right about that, but you are not asked in reference to any criticism you may have upon the report of the commander-in-chief. The question is this: Did Harber have definitely known that there was no picket boat inside the line at Cienfuegos? You say there was, and that the DuPont was one of those boats."

"It was inside the line, inside the Castine."

By the court: Could you see the Texas from the DuPont during the nights of May 22 and May 23?

Witness: No, sir.

Hanna objected to Rayner's method of questioning, especially to his characterization of Capt. Harber's testimony as wrong, when Capt. Harber had said distinctly that he only spoke from his best recollection.

"This," he said, "is an indirect impeachment of the witness, and he had only intended to bring out the facts."

Hanna asked if steps had been taken with the "Flying Squadron" was off Cienfuegos to ascertain if the Spanish fleet was inside the harbor there.

"Not that I know of," was the response.

"Was there any effort to destroy the shore batteries there?" he asked.

"There has been no effort to do so," he said, replying to another question by Mr. Rayner, that vessels in the inside harbor could not have been discovered from the outside.

THAT MANGLED DISPATCH.

Lieut. Wood was then dismissed, and he was leaving the courtroom Hanna took occasion to say: "I will make an announcement while we are waiting. There has been no indication of a question of correctness of the identity of a certain very important dispatch, which was received by Mr. Rayner from the commandant of the 'Flying Squadron' in Havana. It appears that in the process of translation, some changes in the language of that dispatch occurred. I do not desire to designate or interrupt the proceedings by any discussion of that point, but I shall merely make the announcement here that the question was not brought up, and is very fully and completely; that is to say, as fully and completely as the court may desire, before we leave it."

LIEUT. JOHN HOOD.

Lieut. John Hood, who during the war commanded the Hawk, was the next witness. He said that, May 23, he had delivered dispatches from Admiral Sampson to Admiral Schley, who latter was off Cienfuegos. He related that he had been called aboard the Hawk, and that he had seen the Spanish fleet, May 23, when the Hawk was in the harbor at Cienfuegos.

Rayner objected to the introduction of conversation, or of verbal orders, saying that the court was not to be superseded by verbal instructions. The question was then referred to the court, and the witness was asked to state the substance of his conversation with Admiral Schley, and to state the substance of his conversation with Admiral Sampson.

In closing his response, the Judge-Advocate said: "An objection of this character is almost equivalent to withdrawing the request for an investigation. He has asked to have the testimony of the witness in this matter. Let us have it, and do not put technical objections in the way of having the truth ascertained."

Rayner responded, "I only desire to state that while this is our investigation, these are your specifications under the court of inquiry under specifications framed by others and not by himself."

OBJECTION SUSTAINED.

The court retired to consider the objection, remaining out longer than on any previous occasion. Admiral Dewey read the court's decision, as follows: "The court sustains the objection of counsel, so far as it relates to conversations that took place on board the Hawk, and to the extent of the court's decision, which the commander-in-chief directed witnesses to answer. The court is not to be superseded by verbal instructions."

Replying to a question put in connection with this decision, the witness said his instructions were contained in the memorandum handed him and delivered to Admiral Schley, which was read to him.

The witness then read dispatch No. 5 from Sampson to Schley, of May 21, telling the latter that the Spanish fleet was probably at Santiago. He also read the Brooklyn receipt memorandum, showing that the dispatch, as well as the accompanying memorandum, had been received at 5:05 o'clock a.m., May 21. The witness identified these as the orders he had carried. He also said that he had carried two other envelopes, one containing orders from the department, and the other a memorandum which had not been read to him. He said he had arrived on Cienfuegos at 7 o'clock a.m., May 23, and had gone aboard the Brooklyn for the purpose of delivering the dispatches.

COULD NOT GO TO SANTIAGO.

In response to the request from the Judge-Advocate, Lieut. Hood related the conversation he had with Admiral Schley, after delivering the orders, saying that he (the witness) had told the admiral that it was Admiral Sampson's order that the 'Flying Squadron' should proceed immediately to Santiago, as his information was that the Spanish fleet was at Santiago. He said that he had carried two other envelopes, one containing orders from the department, and the other a memorandum which had not been read to him. He said he had arrived on Cienfuegos at 7 o'clock a.m., May 23, and had gone aboard the Brooklyn for the purpose of delivering the dispatches.

"Commodore Schley read the dispatches, and then, turning to me, said: 'I am not at all satisfied that the Spanish fleet are not near Cienfuegos.' He said, besides, the ships all wanted coal; that the Massachusetts, Texas and Brooklyn wanted so many tons of coal, and that the day before Capt. Sampson had sent him down the Iowa with only half her coal supply, so that she could not go anywhere; that it was useless to send ships down there only half filled with coal."

told Commodore Schley that I had passed a collier conveyed by a gunboat, only a little before daylight that morning, with at least 400 or 500 tons of coal within two or three hours. He referred again to his belief of the Spanish fleet being in Cienfuegos, and stated that he had heard some firing, about forty miles from port, which he took to be a welcome to the Spanish squadron, which he believed the Spanish fleet was at. Commodore Schley then said to me: 'Captain, Sampson does not understand. He is not on the spot and cannot judge.'

THE PRESIDENT TO COME WEST.

He May Visit Washington and Oregon First, and Then California.

(NEW ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.)

WASHINGTON, Sept. 22.—President Roosevelt will probably make an extended visit to the Pacific Coast next year. The President has spoken of his intention to several of his friends, among them H. W. Scott of the Portland Oregonian, and S. A. Perkins of the Tacoma Ledger, who left for the Coast today in the belief that this trip would be undertaken.

It is proposed that the President shall visit Washington and Oregon first, then going to California and returning through the Central Western or Southern States. The President has never visited the Pacific Slope.

Commodore Schley then said to me: 'Captain, Sampson does not understand. He is not on the spot and cannot judge.'

"I also informed Commodore Schley that the admiral certainly expected the Spanish fleet at Cienfuegos, and that I had had verbal orders from the commander-in-chief, which did not appear in my written orders, to remain with the Hawk, and to bring the Hawk to Cienfuegos, and to conduct a blockade for a day or two, or as long as my coal supply lasted."

HE WAS PERPLEXED.

"Describe the commodore's manner on this occasion," said Capt. Lemly.

"The commodore was sitting in his chair all the time I was talking to him, very quietly. He seemed to be very much interested in what I was saying."

"Do you remember whether there was anything said about communication with the insurgents?"

"In the commodore's presence?"

"No; to the chief of staff, on deck. The commodore was in the cabin, and during the time you were at Cienfuegos with the Hawk, any effort was made to communicate with the insurgent Cubans."

"There was not."

The witness then testified that the Hawk was not at Cienfuegos, but that a cable report had been received at Kingston, May 23, saying that the Spanish fleet had been sighted in the harbor at Santiago. Admiral Schley's report of this occurrence was also read, as was his report to the court, and the witness was asked to state the substance of his conversation with Admiral Schley, and to state the substance of his conversation with Admiral Sampson.

In closing his response, the Judge-Advocate said: "An objection of this character is almost equivalent to withdrawing the request for an investigation. strations about proceeding to Santiago. Lieut. Hood was then excused, and Capt. Bowman H. McCalla, who commanded the Marblehead during the Spanish War, was called. He testified that he had first come into contact with the 'Flying Squadron' May 19, 1898. When he was proceeding from the south coast of Cuba, he was called by the 'Flying Squadron' on its way to Cuba. The witness said he had not been asked to make a report on conditions in Cuba, but had made a full report to the chief of staff, when he arrived at Key West. On this point he said: "In addition to written reports or dispatches which I had established with the Cubans near Cienfuegos, I was also asked to make a report on conditions in Cuba, but had made a full report to the chief of staff, when he arrived at Key West. ON THE GRIDIRON AT THE CONFERENCE.

Chino Clergyman Who Spoke Disrespectfully of President McKinley—Big Gift to the University.

METHODIST patriotism was at high tide again yesterday in the Southern California Conference in session here at the First Methodist Church.

This time the outside world wasn't supposed to know anything about it, as the subject was discussed in executive session. Enough was dropped in the vestibule, however, to give a hint, and that brought out the whole story.

It was the case of Rev. H. H. Baker of Chino, who, it will be remembered, received a contribution of $100,000 on account of the criticism he uttered against President McKinley, at the memorial exercises, after his death.

The matter started in to be pretty warm, but Bishop McCabe managed to keep the pressure gauge in control. Rev. G. W. White took the case in hand for Baker. He stated that the good people of Chino, while not acquiescing in Baker's remark that "McKinley did not have the brains of Garfield and was not so great a statesman as Lincoln," were satisfied to let the matter pass, inasmuch as the saloon element, having found their greatest enemy in Rev. Baker, would be the first to gloat over it, should he be censured for his utterance. Mr. White made a strong plea for tolerance and leniency.

Baker was required to read the objectionable portion of his address to the conference for the information of those who were not acquainted with it. When Rev. Will A. Knighton took the floor it was thought Baker would be smitten, fore and aft, for Knighton's patriotism is known to be great. During his younger days in the army, he had collared a captain for remarks almost identical, made about Abraham Lincoln, had dragged the culprit to the commandant and had the pleasure of himself executing the order to cut the straps from his superior officer. But Knighton unexpectedly took the side of leniency and while the conference refused to say that Baker was not blameless, it unanimously voted, at the suggestion of the bishop, that he be not censured. Baker won't monkey with the patriotic Methodist box-saw any more.

paper in his interest. [Laughter.] I tried this plan on Calvin Benjamin, a rich man, who was only giving a dollar to missions. One day in Chicago I opened an express package and ten $5 bills fell out. No name was given, and I went to the town from whence it came and asked who sent me that money.

"Calvin Benjamin, and he's gone plumb crazy," was the reply volunteered.

"In going to hunt Calvin Benjamin," I asked.

"Who's building that church?" I asked.

"Calvin Benjamin, and he won't let anybody help him."

"He's the sanest man I ever knew," I declared, and I never asked him for money that he didn't give to me. I asked him a great many times. [Laughter and applause.]

"Last evening I was taking tea with a gentleman in this town, and he slipped a check for $500 in my hand, and I turned it over to Brother Miller. Stand up, Brother Miller." [Great applause.]

HIS OLD SCHOOL FRIEND.

On Thursday last, when Bishop McCabe was introducing the visiting preachers to the conference, he suddenly stopped, when he heard the name of H. Hartup, of Ohio conference.

"Why, here is my old schoolmate. Brethren of the conference, this is my old classmate, Dr. Hartup. We went to school together, in the old days."

He shook him warmly by the hand, and then insisted that his old friend sit by him in the big pulpit chair; and there, when little gaps occurred in the old days, several times since that, Dr. Hartup has sat in the chair by the bishop's side, and it was nothing unusual to see him there yesterday. After they had there for a time together, Bishop McCabe got up, and, with undisguised emotion, said:

"I wish to say for my old schoolmate here, Dr. Hartup, that he authorizes me to say that he will give the last $10,000 of the $60,000 received to complete the University endowment."

The conference broke out into applause long-continued, and added the Chautauqua salute. The bishop tried Doing Some Thinking.

Scientific research may establish rules for life that will make death a rarity from any other cause than old age, or accident; but that day is a long way off. In the absence of absolute rules, we must do a little thinking for ourselves and learn from the experience of others.

It takes only a casual glance at the death lists given in the daily papers to tell us that the most fatal forms of disease common to people of all classes, even under the most favorable circumstances, are kidney complaints. Their causes have puzzled the most astute physicians. All we can do is to strive to avoid them or to cure them in the early stages, for if they are neglected they are certain to result fatally.

The most practical methods of curing kidney complaints and of preventing such fatal forms as Diabetes and Bright's disease, is to commence in time the use of FOLEY'S KIDNEY CURE. It is a combination of the specifics used by famous kidney specialists, and is an honest preparation that can be relied upon. Many cases given up as hopeless have been cured by its use, and it is invariably successful in the early stages of all forms of kidney and bladder disease. You will make no mistake in using FOLEY'S KIDNEY CURE.

BEGGAR WITH A GUN
IN ORANGE COUNTY.WILD MAN MAKES THE PEOPLE
GIVE HIM FOOD.Terror of Santiago Cañon Probably the Same Who Wandered Around Los Angeles—Not Enough Help to Handle
Peaches and Walnuts.

SANTA ANA, Sept. 17.—[From The Times Resident Correspondent.] A wild-looking wanderer, believed to be crazy and dangerous, has been frightening the residents of Santiago Cañon by appearing at their cabin homes and demanding food, at the same time making it a point to exhibit a revolver and to handle it altogether too carelessly for the comfort of his unwilling hosts. The fellow, so far, has not made himself troublesome except in an endeavor to get something to eat, but in this he has been very persistent, and would not take "no" for an answer. The Sheriff has been notified, and will make an effort to overhaul the beggar. He was in the vicinity of Mine, Modjeska's mountain resort when last seen, and his course was up the cañon. He is supposed to be the same crank who terrorized people along the Arroyo Seco between Los Angeles and South Pasadena some time ago, and may be an escaped lunatic.

A FLYING SWITCH. This morning the Southern Pacific freight train made a flying switch south of Fourth street, and half a dozen cars went tearing down through Pendleton's lumber yard, leaving the track and crossing Fourth street and the motor track, and the car wheels struck the curb on the south side of the street the bumper jammed against an electric-light pole and the train was stopped after demolishing one of the lights. No other damage was done.

SANTA ANA BREVITIES. A mass meeting of the students of the High School was held in the assembly hall yesterday, and steps were taken toward the organization of an athletic association, with the immediate object of preparing for the football season. The following officers were elected: William McFadden, president; Prince Cole, secretary; Charles Young, football captain; Reuben Moyer, manager. First and second teams will be formed at once, and will have regular practice on Tuesday and Friday evenings.

Chauncy R. Huggins of Fullerton, who was recently fined $25 by the justice of the peace of Santa Ana township for violating the new county liquor ordinance at Fullerton, failed to make his appearance yesterday, and the court telephoned him that if the fine was not forthcoming an officer would be after him. The money was received in the evening by mail.

The big cannery is unable to secure enough cutters to handle the peach crop. Yesterday the cannery received five carloads, and this morning four carloads more of peaches, and tomorrow the manager expects five more carloads. Mr. Todd says he is short 100 cutters, notwithstanding the fact that he has offered an advance in wages.

Walnut growers are experiencing difficulty in getting enough help to care for the crop. The recent foggy weather is causing the nuts to fall very rapidly, and the unsettled condition of the weather up north makes the ranchers feel that the nuts will be lost. Atwood P. Sproul was arraigned in the Superior Court today for the murder of Fred Lutz of Orange, and was held to October 1, at $10,000.

Eunice Dodge, aged 23 years, died yesterday at Orange. The remains were shipped to Albia, Iowa, for interment. Judge Ballard today granted Frances Winter a divorce from her husband, W. S. Winter, on the grounds of failure to provide, and habitual intemperance.

Mr. and Mrs. C. Cook, who have been visiting Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Condon a few days, returned yesterday to her home in San Bernardino.

One and a half tons of fish, principally barracuda, were caught at Newport Beach Tuesday evening in two hauls of the net.

Rachel Taylor died yesterday at the age of 87 years. The funeral services will be held Saturday afternoon at the family residence.

Rev. R. Pyke of Westminster and Rev. Mr. Butterfield of Santa returned today from a visit of several days in Los Angeles.

George W. Ford went to Los Angeles today to attend the races. Mr. Ford's Neerut, record 2:12 1/4, will start in a race at Santa Anita today.

Mrs. N. F. Phillips, who has resided in this city six years, departed yesterday for Los Angeles, to make her future home.

RIVERSIDE, Sept. 17.—[From The Times Resident Correspondent.] Edward Chambers, general freight agent of the Santa Fe road, west of Alhambra, and James A. Davis of Chicago, industrial commissioner of the company, spent yesterday in Riverside on a trip of inquiry relating to the growth of the orange industry, and the extent of the new orange groves.

In the morning they were driven about Highgrove and the east side of the city by the Chase brothers, and in the afternoon they were driven down the valley and through the Arlington district by W. R. Dowler, local agent of the Santa Fe. Mr. Davis, who attends to the industrial branch of the business of the Santa Fe, has visited Riverside on previous occasions. He came this time to look up the growth of new orange groves and note points of interest in the matter of location, etc., that would be of interest to would-be purchasers in the East. Mr. Chambers is interested in the number of cars it will take to handle the fruit crop during the coming season.

SONORATOWN
ALL GAYETY.Quaint Mexican Quarter
Scene of Jollity.Light and Mirth and a Big Celebration.Independence of the Southern Republic Picturesquely
Observed Here.

There is something touching in the sight of a people celebrating a home event in a far country.

Sonoratown, now almost fallen into its last sleep, with the crumbling of age, shook itself wide awake once more last night, and celebrating its faded face with a multitude of paper lanterns, danced until the wee hours of the morning.

The quaint old Mexican quarter presented a pretty sight throughout the evening. The inhabitants answered to the appeal of La Junta Patriotica de Juarez, under whose auspices the celebration is held, that all houses be brightly decorated.

The whole population was out, gossiping, singing, and fingering guitars. Groups and groups of women, dressed in their best, were draped over the doorways, and from the eaves over the sidewalks in many places, showing the genuine Mexican taken by the people in their little festa.

THE CITY IN BRIEF.

AT THE THEATERS.

LOS ANGELES—Bernama the Great.
BURBANK—The Girl Behind Me.
ORPHEUM—Vaudeville.

NEWS AND BUSINESS.

Burglary Charges.

Special Denny, an old drunk, was held over for trial in the Superior Court on three charges of burglary yesterday, the bonds being fixed at $1500 in each case.

Explosion Caused Fire.

The explosion of a gasoline stove at No. 523 Temple street early yesterday morning set fire to a house occupied by Mrs. M. G. Dunn. The flames were extinguished by the department before any material loss had resulted.

Naked on Street.

Belle Powell, the wife of six-shooter Bill, was brought before Justice Austin for drunkenness yesterday, and sentenced to jail for a short term. She was found dead drunk on the sidewalk on Alameda street, with most of her clothes off.

From Europe.

D. M. Cloud, Esq., has just returned to Los Angeles from a five months' tour through Europe. Mr. Cloud landed in Italy and journeyed north through France and Switzerland. He expects to resume the practice of law in the office of Goodrich & McCutchen.

Arcadium Memorial.

Sunset Council, No. 1074, Royal Arcanum, held a memorial service in honor of the late President, William McKinley, last Thursday. Past Grand Regent Dr. S. H. Boynton paid a glowing tribute to his many beautiful traits of character. Deputy Grand Regent R. A. Rutledge also made some remarks appropriate to the occasion.

Militia Court-martial.

Capt. O. P. Sloan, commanding Co. K, Seventh Regiment, N.G.C., will be tried for neglect of duty by a general court-martial, which will assemble at the Armory at 10 o'clock today. The following detail comprises the court: President, Maj. S. H. Finley; Capt. P. B. Thomas; Pomona; P. A. Collins; Pasadena; J. D. Fredricks; Los Angeles; Truman Cole; Los Angeles; Fred Ahlborn, Anaheim, and I. Fred Schneider, Los Angeles; Judge-advocate, Maj. John E. Jones.

Cross Bull Butte.

Because A. P. Cross, street sprinkling contractor, used bad butter and oleomargarine to feed his employees, Frank Plischow, on whose evidence he was convicted, will soon be $2500 richer. On August 17, Cross was fined $50 in the Police Court for a violation of the law against the use of imitation butter. The law provides that the informant upon whose evidence the conviction is made shall receive half of the fine. The City Attorney yesterday approved Plischow's demand, and it was accordingly audited.

Pioneer's Death.

Many of the pioneers of Los Angeles will bear with regret the death of James R. Walker, for nearly fifty years a resident of this city. A native of Taunton, Mass., he came to California in the great rush of '49. He worked first in the mines, then on the great stock farms of the North, and later came to Los Angeles. He had many friends among those who were boys in the early fifties, among them the late Sam C. Roy, with whom Mr. Walker held a position of trust and confidence for many years.

Suspicious Characters Arrested.

Eight men arrested at the corner of First and Los Angeles streets yesterday afternoon were booked at the Police Station under the head of "Suspicion." Four of them were later released. Policemen Baker and Roller, who made the arrests, believe that some of the men are petty criminals, and after being shown to several police watches, they will be released. This is only one of the precautions which the police are taking to apprehend criminals who may make Los Angeles their headquarters during the race, which commences today.

Death Due Accident.

The coroner's jury, which yesterday held an inquest over the remains of Amelia Martinez, returned a verdict to the effect that death resulted from an accident caused by the explosion of a lamp. Amelia Martinez is the young woman who died Thursday at the County Hospital after sustaining severe burns in a room at the St. Charles Hotel the night before. With May Williams, who was reclining after a drunken debauch, when one of them overturned the lamp and set fire to their clothing. Both women were burned considerably, but the Williams woman will recover.

His Head Cut.

Florencio Ramos was treated at the Receiving Hospital early last evening for a deep gash on the back of his head. His friends say the wound was inflicted when, in a drunken reel, the man fell against a pool table in a San Fernando street resort. It is, however, believed by the police that he was struck on the head with a bottle, or other blunt instrument, while engaged in a saloon fight. When the man was taken from a house at No. 215 Solano street, he was bleeding profusely from the wound, in which an artery had been severed. He was very drunk and unable to tell either his name or how his hurt was received.

California Nightingale.

Miss Carroll McConas, the whistler, who is making a hit at the Pan-American Exposition Temple of Music, where she is advertised as the "California Nightingale," is concluding the third week of her exposition engagement, and will next appear in New York City, where she is booked for a series of entertainments. Miss Carroll's versatility as a whistler surprises the eastern critics. Her repertoire includes not only the popular songs of the day, but the most intricate and difficult compositions of the world's greatest master musicians. The awarding of the first prize to Miss McConas in the San Francisco photographers' beauty show, was a great surprise to her father, Deputy District Attorney McConas of this city. The Stanford Studio entered her picture without the knowledge of the young lady or her parents. Carroll's Los Angeles friends are of the opinion that the compliment is a deserved one.

EXAMINER'S GRUDGE.

Rumor of Proposed Attack on the Los Angeles Police.

It is reported that the Examiner, which has been conducting a fierce crusade against the San Francisco police force, is to extend its field of operations to Los Angeles and attack the local police force.

Chief Elton, it is reported, has earned the enmity of the Examiner and its following by his outspoken stand against law-breaking by walking delegates and his warnings to would-be doers of violence.

The recent outbreak of robberies and hold-ups in this vicinity, will, it is said, furnish the excuse for the Examiner's attack.

NOVEL BULLFIGHT.

Automobile to Displace Horse in the Arena—Immense Sport Promised, With Safety of Picador.

THE NEW ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M. NEW YORK, Sept. 27.—The Biarritz, France, correspondent of the Herald says that next Sunday there is to be a bullfight in the Bayonne arena, but a bullfight such as has never been seen before. It will be a fight of an automobile against a bull.

Henry Deutsch, whose name is connected with the prize for aerial navigation, will preside. Mr. Deutsch, when interviewed concerning this latest novel plan for demonstrating the merits of the automobile, said:

"My opinion is that an automobile can be used instead of a mounted picador, and if the picador is placed on a swiftly revolving automobile, the sport might be immense. I hold that a capable chauffeur of the automobile could avoid the charges of the bull. My idea in all this is that, as the revolving feature of bullfighting is the mutilation of the horse, this could be avoided by the use of an automobile."

MARRIAGE LICENSES.

The following marriage licenses were issued yesterday from the office of the County Clerk:

George E. Simons, aged 25, a native of Illinois, and a resident of Los Angeles, and Elizabeth F. Hedrick, aged 25, a native of Michigan and a resident of Harbor Springs, Mich.

Alexander A. Eisen, a native of California, and Bertha Boll, a native of Germany; both residents of Los Angeles.

THE TIMES MAGAZINE of the coming Sunday will be filled with reading matter which no one can afford to miss.

Get Hungry.

Many grown persons would be glad to experience genuine hunger—the kind they knew in childhood. To abstain from food brings a sense of weakness rather than hunger. Food is needed but the stomach is tired.

Thompson's Dyspepsia Tablets

help tired stomachs. They assist in the process of digestion, give strength and tone to the stomach, and enlist normal secretions of digestive fluids. Use them for weak stomach, indigestion or chronic dyspepsia, and be well and hungry again.
